

Submit Your Art or Written Work for The Pink Collective: An Expression of Art

We invite you to share your artistic perspective with The Pink Collective: An Expression of Art, a booklet that aims to recognize our patients' courage and resilience throughout their breast cancer journeys.

The Pink Collective represents the diverse artwork of life's experiences, highs and lows, that bring our community together with pages of hope.

---

We will publish chosen submissions in The Pink Collective booklet during October as part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month to:

---

Empower others on their breast care journey.

Foster awareness of screening.

Create solidarity between artists, survivors and supporters.

---

How to submit your work

We welcome submissions from patients of all walks of life and communities. Please submit your materials and a completed form by July 1.

You may submit artistic media including:

- Drawings
- Photography
- Poetry
- Creative writing
- Graphics
- Fibers
- Sculpture
- Ceramics

Please email this submission form to thepinkcollective@nm.org.

Submission Form for Artwork for The Pink Collective: An Expression of Art

Artist Information

Name:

---

Contact information:

---

How should your name be published?

---

Any social media or websites to credit:

---

(Optional) Biography of two to three sentences,
150-word limit:

---

---

---

Artwork Submission

Title of work:

---

Media used:

---

Summary of artistic meaning, including how it relates to breast care (150-word limit):

---

---

---

Please submit high-resolution image files, ideally in jpg. format.

Artists keep the copyright of their submitted works. By signing this form, you give permission for Northwestern Medicine to publish the artwork without limits and share it with the public.

Signature:

---

Date:

---